

March Minutes

Subj: Minutes from 3-3-2000
Date: 3/4/00 5:06:53 PM !!!First Boot!!!
From: Dhbdebbsen
To: iken@gvn.net

Hi Ingrid, no time like the present to get the minutes to you. so here goes-

The following were accepted as members of Monitor Lodge 218 & vasa Order of America.

Maria Dahlman, Danish
Joan Hagstrom, Swedish
Henrik Jul Hanson, Danish
Elsa Herman, Danish
Bud Mogford, Swedish
Theresa Tomka, Swedish

John and Jewel Wright were welcomed back into membership.

Minutes of November Lodge meeting were approved as published in the Newsletter.

The 88th Anniversary Dinner on SATURDAY April 15, will be catered to allow the current faithful and most capable "Kitchen Crew" to join us as guests for this event. Refreshments - 4:30, Dinner at 5:30. Reservations will be required. Look for details in the Monitor, our newsletter.

Coming events:

Pancake Breakfast - Saturday, March 18, 9a.m. to 1p.m. Sign up sheet circulated for volunteer assistance. Everyone urged to stop by and bring a friend.

Scandinavia Festival - Saturday, April 8. Important event, culturally and an important event, economically for our Lodge, this is the largest fund raiser for our Lodge.

Rummage sale on Saturday, May 6. Everyone is urged to bring sale items to the Mors Dag Dinner or early on Saturday morning. Volunteers needed to sort and display merchandise. There will be a bake sale included, a very popular sale item.

Violet De Bord reported that the second installment of the filming of the famous Swedish Book series, The Immigrants, will be shown at her home on March 17. Call her for details.

The Chaplains report: The following members were visited and/ or received cards. Ellen Herting; Estrid Doscher; Thelma Badgley at the passing of husband, Charles; Evelyn Anderson; Eva Allred, in the passing of a relative; Birgitta Ellis; Ethyl Hoffman; Cecile Spencer.

Children's Club. Many new younger members. This group will perform at the Mars dag Dinner. swedis Lace making is a current project for the club.

Scholarship: chairman, Jillian Stanley, reported the committee had received 4 applications.

In a motion by Kurt Pfannkuch, seconded by Astrid Broess and approved by

*Arleen - there is what I sent to Ingrid for her to summarize for "short" article in New letter -
DNB.*

you can file this for the March meeting.

the membership, Margaret Carlson was granted a $250 draw for the Pancake breakfast.

tuesday -

Next cottage business meeting April 18, 7 p.m. Harrod Residence. All members are invited to attend.

Well here it is, Ingrid. This is the complete minutes. You always know what to print. Your next newsletter will be critical for coming events. You do a heck of a job!! Thank you, sincerely.

copy

Monitor Lodge #218

Chaplain's Report 3-3-00

Ellen Herting: Broke her hip; is convalescing at Casa Loma Health Center, 10410 Coloma Rd. in Rancho Cordova. Visited her Feb. 25th, & brought her cookies and a card. Was very glad to have company.

ESTRID DOESCHER: is now living at 641 Feature Drive, Sacramento. Lost her husband Jack last year. Called twice trying to set up a visit but was refused. Sent a card. Will try again.

CHARLES BADGLEY: Sent sympathy card to family on his passing.

EVELYN ANDERSON: Visited her at College Oaks Nursing Rehabilitation on College Oaks Dr. on Feb. 13th. Brought cookies, a plant & a card. Was happy to have a visitor.

EVA ALLRED: Brother-in-law passed away. Sent a sympathy card to family.

THELMA RANGE: Was in auto accident. Unable to reach her to check on how she is doing.

BIRGITTA ELLIS: Been suffering from shingles. Called again, and she is doing fine.

ETHEL HOFFMAN: Still has remnants of the shingles, but is much better. Called her today.

CECILE SPENCER: Still in rest-home. Will visit her next week.

Respectfully submitted
Dorothy Mogford, Chaplain