

THE MONITOR

Vol. I no. 1

March 1977

LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Members,

Please come out and support your new corps of officers. We had a very nice turn out at our first meeting. Everyone seemed to enjoy the Cake Walk. We had eleven cakes! The members want to thank all those ladies who baked, and so do I.

We accepted with regrets the resignation of Hank Hjersman as Cultural Leader. RUTH VEIS has been appointed to fill that office. HANK HJERSMAN will be in charge of buying paper goods, coffee, etc., for the supply closet of the Lodge. Will the refreshment committee for each meeting please check with him? And thanks, Ruth and Hank, for doing these jobs.

MAUDE ENGBERG will be calling refreshment committee each month to remind them when they are serving. Thanks, Maude.

The Maid of Sweden for the Camellia Parade will be Lori Johnson, daughter of DON & JOYCE JOHNSON.

On Feb. 11, there were 5 of us who journeyed to Stockton to visit Nord Lodge. We had a very enjoyable time, and all of you have been invited to Stockton for their "Tax Time Trounce" Sat., Mar. 19, 8:00 p.m. Sciots' Hall - 525 Fulton St., Stockton. Barbara has tickets at $3.50 each.

We are looking forward to our Monitor Lodge Casino Night chaired by Charles Linn and his able committee. This is always a very outstanding evening enjoyed by all. Let's back him and his committee with your turn-out. (You know we also have to make money for the Lodge to operate on.)

The next meeting on March 4 is "Swedish Bingo". Let's all see what our Cultural Leader has planned for the evening. Let's all come out to our functions and enjoy the fellowship!

In Truth & Unity
Thelma Badgley - Chairman

MARCH 4: MEETING 8:00 p.m. sharp

Bring all items for ETHNIC DISPLAY to Lodge Meeting clearly marked with your name. If you are showing several items please also include a prepared checklist of all your items with your name. This facilitates quick and accurate return. We haven't lost an item yet!
