

LETTER FROM OUR CHAIRMAN

Dear Members:

Congratulations to the new corps of officers of Monitor Lodge. May each officer grow richer through this experience, and may Monitor Lodge grow and prosper.

Congratulations also to Monitor Lodge on our fine new members initiated last meeting. To the three new members, I hope that we will be seeing you regularly at our meetings and activities. I know that you will enjoy the fellowship of the members of Monitor Lodge.

I also wish to thank the substitutes that pitched in during our last meeting. There was a great deal of illness. Hope everyone is much better. We all miss you.

We all enjoyed the bus trip to Reno on Oct. 16, arranged by our Cultural Leader, Ruth Veis. Thank you, Ruth.

The meeting of Nov. 4 is to be a Pot Luck. Every person must bring his own table service - plate, cup, and silverware. Also bring food of your choosing to feed ten persons. (You know that we are having guests that evening.) We are not having a committee to do the dishes, so each must take care of his own when he returns home.

We are also having our Country Store the same evening. Be sure to bring something you have either baked or made. Plants are also good to bring. We want to have a nice Country Store this month and to make some money for Monitor. So that members can be waited on expeditiously, I would like the following members to clerk in the Country Store: Eleanor Vine, Ruth Veis, Sue Bergman, Helen Forsty, and myself.

Welcome back to Ken and Eleanor Vine. They have been in the East, visiting and seeing the sights. While in Washington, D.C., they weren't sure which side of "C" St. the State Department was on. They stopped a passing Marine and queried, "Which side is the State Department on?" He replied, "Ours, I think!"

In Truth and Unity
Thelma Badgley - Chairman

To those of you who have not seen the Christmas tree plaque, or bought your chances on it, now is the time to do so. The drawing will be in Dec. and tickets are 3 for $1. The money raised will go into Monitor Lodge's Scholarship Fund.

HEY, THERE!

The trustees of the Golden Gate (Dist. 12) Recreation Center invite you to join in the Dedication Ceremony on Sun. Nov. 6 at 1 p.m. They ask that you bring your own picnic lunch. The recreation site is located off Highway 88, east of Jackson. Turn off at Inspiration Drive and go 3 miles. They say it will be well marked so you won't get lost. Go past Pioneer
