MESSAGE FROM OUR VICE-CHAIRMAN
When I first joined the lodge, I was much impressed by the phrase "in truth and unity" used so often in our ritual. It also appeared that the members took the words literally and acted in that manner. Now, of late, I seem to sense that the "unity" spirit is not as prevalent. Do we, as good members of Monitor Lodge, forget that although there are differences of opinion about issues and actions, we are still members, to serve in "truth and unity"? Staying away from meetings because we do not always agree with something said or done by an officer or officers, or committee persons is a "cop - out". Most of us have lived long enough, I am sure, to have experienced some success and many failures in our daily lives. We know we don't always agree with opinions of others, nor do we find agreement with all of our own thoughts and deeds. So it seems fitting, as this new year gets underway, that we examine our thinking, stop looking for total agreement, and pitch in for greater "unity and truth". Help make Monitor Lodge the best in California if not the nation.
