Norman Cedarquist wishes to remind everyone that newspapers and aluminum cans are still needed for the Convention Fund. Anyone having access to computer paper, computer cards or office paper it is worth $100.00 a ton. It must be in boxes or paper bags.

The balance in the Convention Fund as of January 1, 1981 was $902.45.

Arden Fair parking lot at 8:00. Proceeds from this trip go to the Convention Fund so do give us your support.

At our last meeting weren't the refreshments and eggnog great that were served by the incoming officers. Eleanor Vine did a good job of coordinating it.

On Sunday January 11th most of our officers were installed at the Holiday Inn thanks to Arlie Veis and his staff of District officers. Our thanks to Linda Bogenstedt for arranging for this lovely place for our luncheon and meeting. Thanks also to Helen Forsty who was great at the piano.

The members of Monitor Lodge wish to thank Linda for all her efforts this past year on our behalf--she did a great job!

We were happy to see Audrey out from her "flu bed" to attend the installation and we wish her a successful year.

Your new editor, Ruth Lundberg would like to remind anyone needing to submit a news item to please get it to me by the 20th of each month. As I live in Auburn it will take a little longer for the mail to reach you. Please let your Vice-Chairman know of any illnesses so he can let me know and you can be informed so as to send a card or call on our sick. Thank you for your cooperation.
